In Leviticus 23rd chapter we find the Feasts of the Lord listed. Many people falsely assume these feasts are exclusively for the Jews, but the Lord makes it very clear these are his feasts. Leviticus 23:2 says concerning the Feasts of the Lord; even these are my feasts. Verse 4 says these are the Feasts of the Lord.

Another misconception is that when Jesus was crucified he nailed these feasts to the cross. Jesus did nail a law to the cross, but it was not these feasts, it was the animal sacrifice law. Daniel 9:26-27 states that the Messiah (Jesus) would be cut off (killed) he would cause sacrifice and oblation to cease. Hebrews 10: 4-5 says that the blood of bulls and goats could not take away sins, wherefore when he (Jesus) cometh into the world he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not.

Now that we understand that Jesus did not nail these feasts to the cross, and that they are not the Feasts of the Jews but rather the Feasts of the Lord, we will show you what they are. Each of these feast days has a meaning in God’s plan for the salvation of man. In this article we will not deal with the meaning of them, but we will show you that they are to be kept throughout all generations. We will begin in Leviticus 23:3. The seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord in all your dwellings, an holy convocation (assembly). As we can see the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord and we are commanded to have an assembly on that day. The seventh day has always been the sabbath day. When God came down and stood on Mt. Sinai and spake the ten commandments to the people, he commanded to keep the seventh day, EXODUS 20: 10. Even before then he said by the mouth of Moses that the seventh day was the sabbath, EXODUS 16: 26. In fact, God sanctified the seventh day in creation GENESIS 2: 3. Now let’s look at what’s called the New Testament, MATTHEW 28:1, at the end of the Sabbath at it began to dawn toward the first day of the week. “Notice,” the sabbath was the day before the first day, which is the seventh day. During the days of the apostle Paul, not only did the Jews attend a holy convocation on the sabbath day, but the Gentiles did as well, ACTS 13: 42-44. The stranger (non-Israelites) that were servants of God in the bible understood that if they were going to be in God’s kingdom, they had to keep the sabbath and take hold of his covenant (the commandments) ISAIAH 56: 6-7. From the scriptures we can see that the seventh day has been the sabbath. You can’t find any place in the bible where it was changed to the first day, as some claim. Rome tried to change it, but the bible is very clear, it is the seventh day.

The next feast day is the Lord’s Passover LEVITICUS 23; 5-6, VS. 5, on the fourteenth day of the first month is the Lord’s Passover, VS. 6 fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread seven days. EXODUS 12: 14, 17 tells us that the Passover and the feast of unleavened bread are to be kept forever throughout your generations. The feast of unleavened bread begins the day after the Passover and is to last for seven days. The first and last day of the fast of Unleavened Bread are high Sabbaths. In the New Testament the entire eight days were referred to as the days of unleavened bread. Jesus and his disciples kept these days of unleavened bread, MATTHEW 26: 17-19.

Long after Jesus died on the cross God’s servants continued to observe these days ACTS 20: 6. So apparently Jesus did not nail these days to the cross as some claim. Even when the Lord returns these days will still be celebrated, EZEKIEL 45: 21. So now it is clear that when the Lord said forever, through all your generations that is what he meant.

LEVITICUS 23: 15-16 brings us to the next feast day, which is called The Feast of Weeks in the Old Testament, in the New Testament it is called Pentecost. It was called Feast of Weeks because you had to number seven sabbaths (weeks) plus one day from around the time of the

The Voices of Truth Choir

The Voices of Truth Choir at the The House of Jacob presents their first CD. The CD has fifteen uplifting spiritual songs of truth and knowledge. Many of the songs were written by some of our brothers in the word and one sister.

The choir began with a few as five members in 2001. In 2002 the choir disbanded but through the grace of God, re-grouped in 2004. Since then, the Voices of Truth Choir, named in 2008, has flourished. We have grown to sixteen members strong; praising God with our voices; lifting him up and spreading his word through song.

The Voices of Truth Choir would like to thank the House of Jacob congregation and others, too many to name, for their loyal support throughout the years. May this CD lift your spirits should you have a bad day. May it give you added joy that you can share with others every day. May the songs we sing ring true to your heart and soul; awakening you to the glorious word of God.

We appreciate you.

We thank you.

May God bless you.

Recipe:

VeggieGirl’s Veganized Walnut Blondies

Makes 16 blondies.

- 6 ounces (1 single-serving sized container) plain or vanilla vegan “yogurt” (I used So Delicious Coconut Milk Yogurt - it’s soy-free!!)
- 1/4 cup canola oil
- 1 cup sugar (I used organic turbinado sugar)
- 2 teaspoons pure vanilla extract
- 2 teaspoons molasses (I used the Plantation brand of blackstrap molasses)
- 1-1/4 cups flour (I used Bob’s Red Mill GF All Purpose Baking Flour)
- 3/4 teaspoon baking soda
- 1-1/2 cups walnuts, coarsely chopped
- Non-dairy “milk” of choice, added to the batter as needed (Note: I used Living Harvest hempmilk, and ended up adding about 1/2 cup of the stuff to the batter)
- Caramel sauce (I used Santa Cruz Organic vegan caramel syrup), optional for serving purposes

Preheat oven to 350°F (180°C). Lightly coat an 8”x8” baking pan with nonstick cooking spray.

In a large bowl, add the “yogurt,” canola oil, turbinado sugar, vanilla extract, and molasses. Mix well.

In the same bowl, add in the flour, baking soda, and chopped walnuts. As the mixture starts to thicken up/combine, add as much nondairy “milk” as you need (but not too much) so that the batter is mixable.

Pour mixture into the 8”x8” baking pan (coated generously with nonstick cooking spray). Bake for about 32-35 minutes, until a toothpick inserted in the center of the blondies comes out clean.

Drizzle with caramel sauce for serving, if desired.

_ I John 5:14_

From the time I wake up in the morning, until my head hits the pillow at night. I think of the prayer I asked of you, Lord. I wonder if it will come true today or tomorrow. Days turn into weeks and weeks turn into months. If it’s not answered soon, Lord, I’m afraid I might get weak and just give up.

So I pray every day in order to renew my faith, knowing if I do, my prayer will come true someday. Lord, I can’t give up, for if I do, it would be like giving up on you. It would be like not trusting in your word, like not believing a word you said. I would be calling you a liar, something God won’t do. God doesn’t lie. He couldn’t, he wouldn’t. Therefore I must continue to believe everything I read about you.

Faith without works is dead, I read. So I do what I can, thinking I’m giving God a helping hand. But nothing I’m doing seems to work out the way I planned. So I turn to the Lord once again. Lord, am I getting in the way of your plan?

I begin to pray for understanding. God please help me understand where I stand in your plan. I don’t mean to question you. It’s just that, I know you have a plan for every woman and man. Maybe I should just be still, sometimes that’s his will. It will be well worth the wait, if I just stop what I’m doing and let God do it his way.

Maybe it’s my prayer. Is that why you’re not blessing me right away? Am I praying for what I want but don’t need? Lord, is that why you’re not answering me?

Bigger is not always better. The more I see others with, the more I want for me. Things, things and more things won’t fill up the emptiness in me. There is something missing. I think its called tranquility.

So I look in the mirror and take inventory of me. I have food, clothing and shelter, the necessities. Anything more than that is just called greed. What about peace, love and harmony? Yes, that’s what I’m missing, that’s what I need.

Don’t give up, whatever you do. There’s a reason why God hasn’t answered you. Seek ye first his will for you. Obey his commandments as they are written, for you know God doesn’t hear the prayers of a sinner.

Lord, I can’t give up; I won’t give up on you. It takes patience and courage to wait on the Lord for deliverance. Therefore, I will continue to wait, watch, and pray, no matter how long it takes. For I know if I do, my prayer will come true someday.

Did You Know That?...

Drinking two glasses of Gatorade can relieve headache pain almost immediately -- without the unpleasant side effects caused by traditional "pain relievers."

Did you know that Colgate toothpaste makes an excellent salve for burns.

Achy muscles from a bout of the flu? Mix 1 Tablespoon of horseradish in 1 cup of olive oil. Let the mixture sit for 30 minutes, then apply it as a massage oil, for instant relief for aching muscles.

Sore throat? Just mix 1/4 cup of vinegar with 1/4 cup of honey and take 1 tablespoon six times a day. The vinegar kills the bacteria.

Cure urinary tract infections with Alka-Seltzer. Just dissolve two tablets in a glass of water and drink it at the onset of the symptoms. Alka-Seltzer begins eliminating urinary tract infections almost instantly -- even though the product was never been advertised for this use. (Note: Alka-Seltzer Plus Cold Medicine is not the same...and contains aspirin, which can cause stomach bleeding if you have ulcers.)

Honey remedy for skin blemishes... Cover the blemish with a dab of honey and place a Band-Aid over it. Honey kills the bacteria, keeps the skin sterile, and speeds healing. Works overnight.

Listerine therapy for toenail fungus... Get rid of unsightly toenail fungus by soaking your toes in Listerine mouthwash. The powerful antiseptic leaves your toenails looking healthy again.

Easy eyeglass protection... To prevent the screws in eyeglasses from loosening, apply a small drop of Maybelline Crystal Clear nail polish to the threads of the screws before tightening them.

Coca-Cola cure for rust... Forget those expensive rust removers. Just saturate an abrasive sponge with Coca Cola and scrub the rust stain. The phosphoric acid in the coke is what gets the job done.

Cleaning liquid that doubles as bug killer... If menacing bees, wasps, hornets, or yellow jackets get in your home and you can’t find the insecticide, try a spray of Formula 409. Insects drop to the ground instantly.

Smart splinter remover... Just pour a drop of Elmer’s Glue-All over the splinter, let dry, and peel the dried glue off the skin. The splinter sticks to the dried glue.

Hunt’s tomato paste boil cure... Cover the boil with Hunt’s tomato paste as a compress. The acids from the tomatoes soothe the pain and bring the boil to a head.

Balm for broken blisters... To disinfect a broken blister, dab on a few drops of Listerine... a powerful antiseptic.

Heinz vinegar to heal bruises... Soak a cotton ball in white vinegar and apply it to the bruise for 1 hour. The vinegar reduces the blueness and speeds up the healing process.

Kills fleas instantly. Dawn dish washing liquid does the trick. Add a few drops to your dog’s bath and shampoo the animal thoroughly. Rinse well to avoid skin irritations. Goodbye fleas.

Rainy day cure for dog odor... Next time your dog comes in from the rain, simply wipe down the animal with Bounce or any dryer sheet, instantly making your dog smell springtime fresh.

Eliminate ear mites... All it takes is a few drops of Wesson corn oil in your cat’s ear. Massage it in, then clean with a cotton ball. Repeat daily for 3 days. The oil soothes the cat’s skin, smothers the mites, and accelerates healing.

Quaker Oats for fast pain relief... It’s not for breakfast anymore! Mix 2 cups of Quaker Oats and 1 cup of water in a bowl and warm in the microwave for 1 minute, cool slightly, and apply the mixture to your hands for soothing relief from arthritis pain.

Cardiac information

This is a very good article, not only about the warm water after your meal, but about Heart Attacks. The Chinese and Japanese drink hot tea with their meals, not cold water, maybe it is time we adopt their drinking habit while eating.

For those who like to drink cold water, this article is applicable to you. It is nice to have a cup of cold drink after a meal, however, the cold water will solidify the oily stuff that you have just consumed. It will slow down the digestion. Once this ‘sludge’ reacts with the acid, it will break down and be absorbed by the intestine faster than the solid food. It will line the intestine. Very soon, this will turn into fats and lead to cancer. It is best to drink hot soup or warm water after a meal.

Common Symptoms Of Heart Attack...

A serious note about heart attacks - You should know that not every heart attack symptom is going to be the left arm hurting. Be aware of intense pain in the jaw line. You may never have felt the first chest pain during the course of a heart attack. Nausea and intense sweating are also common symptoms. sixty percent of people who have a heart attack while they are asleep do not wake up. Pain in the jaw can wake you from a sound sleep. Let’s be careful and be aware. The more we know, the better chance we have to survive a heart attack.

A cardiologist says if everyone who reads this article shares it with 10 other people, you can be sure that we’ll save at least one life. Read this & share with a friend. It could save a life.

The Feasts of the Lord

Pentecost because it was celebrated on the fiftieth day. It is always observed on the first day of the week (Sunday). LEVITICUS 23: 16 says tomorrow after the seventh Sabbath. LEVITICUS 23: 21 says that it is to be kept forever. That is why it continued to be observed in the New Testament long after the crucifixion of Jesus, ACTS 2: 1, ACTS 20: 16. Again if Jesus nailed it to the cross why did his disciples continue to celebrate it?

The next feast day is the Memorial of Blowing of Trumpets, LEVITICUS 23: 23-24. It is a Sabbath (High Sabbath). Just as Pentecost is. There is to be an holy convocation (assembly) on each of these days.

The Day of Atonement is the next feast day that is to be observed LEVITICUS 23: 27-32. It is a Sabbath (High Sabbath) as well. There is to be a holy convocation on this day. You are to afflict your souls (fast) on this day. It is to be celebrated forever, throughout your generations, in all your dwellings.

The final feast day is the fest of Tabernacles, LEVITICUS 23: 34-39. The entire The Feast of Tabernacles lasts for eight days. You are to actually have a feast for seven days and the eighth day have a solemn assembly. LEVITICUS 23: 41 says that this feast is to be celebrated forever, that is why in the New Testament the people still celebrated it, even Jesus himself celebrated it, JOHN 7: 2, 10-14. When Jesus returns to establish his kingdom on the earth, all nations will have to keep it or the Lord will not give them any rain, ZECHARIAH 14: 3-5, 9, 16-19. Again when the Lord said forever throughout your generations that is what he meant.

We will give you the name of these days again. The Sabbath (the seventh day), the Passover, The Feast of Unleavened bread, the Feast of Weeks called Pentecost in the new testament, the Memorial of Blowing of Trumpets, the Day of Atonement and the Feast of Tabernacles. Again, these are not the feasts of the Jews, but rather the feasts of the Lord as stated four times in Leviticus 23rd chapter verses 2, 4, 37 and 44. As you can see in the Old Testament besides having an holy convocation the people were also commanded to sacrifice on animal or animals on these days and that is what they did but when Jesus was crucified that ended the animal sacrifice laws but that did not do away with these feast days. The Bible is clear, that long after the crucifixion of Jesus, the true servants of God who were sometimes called Christians in the new testament still observed these days. The Lord said Forever throughout your generations and that what he meant.
